“ My memories of Ervin was 5yrs including my childhood and becoming an woman. Ervin was an strong man I believe it wasn't his time and if I would of got that phone call I wouldn't have to write this now. As years of knowing each other we didn't have family to run to when time goes wrong as for his sisters,mother,brother and the others that showed love when he was dead and gone is wrong cause where was yall when he needed them is what i asked myself. I know I ain't the perfect person but I know it's all our fault that he's gone I couldn't deal with the abuse that he was taking out on me because if emotional effects from the family
