

Mrs. Esther Mae Hayes

April 12, 1935 - November 22, 2012

Esther M. Hayes, 77 years old, entered into eternal peace on Thursday, November 22, 2012 at her home; in Milwaukee, Wisconsin surrounded by her family.

She was born on April 12, 1935 to the late Tilman and Louella Williams in Monroe, Louisiana. She was the sixth of nine siblings. She attended the Monroe City Public Schools.

Esther accepted Christ at an early age. She was a member of Greater Mount Sinai Church of God In Christ, where she was a member until her health made it challenging for her to attend.

She was a homemaker that was dedicated and supportive of her family. She was always willing to lend a helping hand and good advice. You could always find a tasty meal or a word of wisdom. On a really good day, you could get both.

Esther was preceded in death by her parents, Tillman and Louella Williams; her sisters, Rosie Lee Butler, Pearl Moran and Mary Catherine Williams; her beloved son, Johnnie Corlprue Jr.; her beloved brother, Adell Williams; a special brother-in-law, Johnny Mosely; and grandson, Anthony Corprue.

She leaves to cherish and enjoyed fond memories: three daughters, Dianne Corprue, Eartha Corprue and Helen Faye Corprue all of Milwaukee, Wisconsin; two sons; Robert Corprue of Gary, Indiana and John Wallace Jr. of Rochester, Minnesota; three sisters, Ora Lee Willis, Louise Willis of Monroe, Louisiana and Della Mosely of East Chicago, Indiana; one brother, Louis (Mae Ola) Williams of Hammond, Indiana; fifteen grandchildren, nineteen great-grandchildren and thirteen great-great-gtandchildren, a special best friend of fifty-five years, Lou Emma Banks of Indianapolis, Indians; and a host of many nieces, nephews, relatives and other dear friends.
