“ I was saddened to hear that Ms. Evelyn had transitioned, several weeks after her memorial service. I had desired to spend a moment in her presence before her life paused from the presence of earth. However, thank you family for allowing me to share and love your beloved "mom & granny".

Ms. Evelyn was a sweet, kind, thoughtful and compassionate. She was soft-spoken, yet she was heard loud and clearly when she spoke words of wisdom or correction... or when crossed.

I believe she sought me out and handpicked me during my adolescent years. She embraced me. She gave recognition on my birthday or education accomplishments.

As I matured into a young lady, (in the absence of my mom - transitioned in 1988),

Ms. Evelyn remained a constant in my life. She would gingerly advise, support or encouragement me when it was befitting.

As I recall these safe-guarded memories, I tenderly envy the angels that are now enjoying her company and rejoicing in the presence of God!

Farewell for now...I look forward to seeing you again one day... In our Father's House!
