

Ms. Ever C. White

October 22, 1931 - June 21, 2024

Ever C. White (Brooks) was born on October 22, 1931, to the union of Everlena and Jesse Brooks in Chatfield, Arkansas. Ever received her formal education within the great states of Arkansas and Michigan. She furthered her education in the city of Milwaukee, where she learned hat-making and also took courses to care for the elderly.

Ever accepted Christ as her Savior at an early age and was united with Zion Hill Missionary Baptist Church in 1962. She was a faithful member and served in many positions, including singing in the choir, the Mission Circle, and working in the kitchen.

On January 7, 1949, Ever C. Brooks united in holy matrimony with Milton Nathaniel White in the great state of Michigan. Their union was blessed with 4 children.

Ever was employed by Manpower and The Grain Exchange, where she worked from 1969 until 1996 (27 years). In her leisure, she enjoyed cooking, baking, and making her own hats. She was a sharp dresser and loved finding treasures at resale shops. Ever also loved plants, flowers, gardening, and watching her Westerns and murder mysteries. In her younger years, she loved taking her young children to the neighborhood movie theatre.

Ever C. White departed this life on June 21, 2024. She was preceded in death by her: husband, Milton N. White; daughter, Shirley White; parents, Everlena and Jesse Brooks; and siblings, Jesse, Alvester, Lovertee, Artee.

John D., Ceola, Albirda, Penola, and John L. She leaves to cherish her memory: siblings, Verlene, Thelma, and Roy; children, Anthony, Curtis (Maxine), and Angela; grandchildren, Kevin, Ramel, Jemarr, Charity, Jessica, Justin, Caleb, Arianna, and Amari; great-grandchildren, Andreas, Londyn, and Lizzie; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, and friends.
