

Ms. Fannie J. Youngblood

August 17, 1943 - February 10, 2024

Fannie Jane Youngblood was born on August 17, 1943, to the union of Anderson Paul and Eliza Henning in Henning, TN. Fannie accepted Christ at an early age. She received her early education within the Lauderdale County Tennessee Public School System. She later moved to Milwaukee, Wisconsin and graduated from Lincoln High School. Throughout Fannie's career she worked at A.O. Smith Corporation and retired as a machine operator and union steward.

Fannie's passion for advocacy motivated her to become employed as a labor liaison at United Way of Greater Milwaukee.

Fannie will be remembered for her devoted faith, affectionate personality, and amazing smile. She was known for her sheer determination, unconditional love, and acts of Kindness. Fannie dedicated her life to being the voice for the voiceless. Many relied upon her for advice and as their confidant, hence, leaving an imprint on the hearts of everyone she encountered.

Fannie lived her life to the fullest. The simplest pleasures in life brought her happiness. She enjoyed cooking, traveling, bowling, softball, volunteering, shopping, and most importantly spending quality time with her family and closest friends.

On Saturday, February 10, 2024, Fannie "transitioned from this life to eternal rest. She was preceded in death by her: parents, Anderson Paul and Eliza Henning; sons, Anthony Youngblood and William "Billy" Henning; brothers, J.W. Burse, Ira B. Henning, Lloyd Henning, Leroy Henning, and Samuel Henning; and sisters, Nera Jefferies, Mackcenet Henning, and Jo Ella Williamson.

Fannie's legacy will continue through her: beloved children, Bobby Henning, Constance Youngblood, and Mark Youngblood; sister, Vannie Lee Henning; grandchildren, William Short, Jason Thomas, Mickey Robinson, Marques Brownmiller, Shanaye Brownmiller, Marcus Youngblood-Newell, Fannie Lousie Youngblood, Savannah Youngblood-Newell, and Mario Youngblood-Newell; ten great-grandchildren; and an abundance of nieces, nephews, cousins, and lifelong friends.
