“ Melisande and family

Please know that you all are in my prayers during this difficult time for your family. It seems like just a couple years ago we were running around Roosevelt Drive as kids playing. The years have really flown by. Your father and Grandfather was a very well respected educator in the City of Milwaukee and you should be proud of your lineage. Find peace in your memories that you have in your heart because they will last forever.

I love you Melisande and I would be there with you today, but I moved to North Carolina on June 20, 2010.##imported-begin##Jackie Kimble Allen##imported-end##

“ I was surprise and sorry to her that Mr. Carr as I know him had pass from this life. He was my 5th grade teacher at Keefe Avenue school on 16th Keefe Street in Milwaukee. I remember him being a soft spoken teacher with a mild manner. He never talked to us in a negative or discouraging way. He would tell us that we needed to learn how to read, write and do math because it was important to our success in life and getting a job. He told us nobody wanted to hire a dummie. He said a women did not want to marry a uneducated man and a man did not want a women who was not smart and knew how to take care of a family. I know that his family will miss him. Pat I will keep you in my prayers. God is able to take us through the pain of losing a love one.##imported-begin##Lorraine Tyler##imported-end##
