“ I had the pleasure of being a student of Ms. Reed at Samuel Clemens elementary school. Ms. Reed played an important part in my development as a male and as a professional. She always made us write and speak in complete sentences. She always would squeeze my cheeks and she made me feel so wonderful as a child that had self esteem issues. Ms. Reed was the best teacher because she helped all of her students. She had a personal relationship with each and everyone of us. This was 1989 when I was in sixth grade.

I love you Ms. Reed and you did a good job.##imported-begin##Jeffrey Marshall##imported-end##
