“ When I think of the words "hey now," I think of Gary.

I worked with Gary at the VA for over 12 years. It was a pleasure to work with him over the years. Always in a good mood with occasional bouts of sleepiness, positive, and professional. Thinking of Gary, one of the memories etched in my mind is a shared memory between Gary and the staff. Back in the years, in our morning reports, he would ring his bell with the intent of quieting staff so morning report could begin. Followed by "good morning, good morning, and good morning." The journey of life, the diary we carry with us...memories.

To Gary's family and friends. God will give you the strength you need to get through each day. And on days when you feel you just can't go another step, God will carry you!

“ I had the pleasure of working with Mr. Gary for 4 years here at the VA. Throughout this time we had many conversations--lots of laughs, and many talks about God and life in general. He's a good man. My only wish is that he had a bit more time to do those things he always wanted to do--write, take pictures, and do more travel. He loved his family deeply--a sentiment he often expressed. I will miss him. But I know he is still with us--closer now than ever, because he is with the Lord. I am so sorry for your loss--it sounds cliché, but I really am. Please know that you are all in my prayers. God bless you, and God Bless Mr. Gary.
