

Ms. Geneva Webb

February 5, 1930 - October 8, 2012

On October 8, 2012, Geneva Webb, passed on to eternal life. Geneva was born to the blessed union of James and Anna Boyd, February 5, 1930., in Munford, TN. At an early age Geneva accepted Christ at St. Mark A.M.E. Church in Munford.

Seeking a better life, Geneva moved her family to Milwaukee, Wisconsin and made Milwaukee their permanent home. As a single mom she raised her 4 children with the help of her sisters. Shortly after relocating she united with St. Mark A.M.E. Church, then located at 11th and Reservoir. She sang in the Gospel Choir for 49 years.

Geneva worked at Briggs & Stratton Stratton for years. She loved to cook for her family and enjoyed watching everyone enjoy every bite. She was famous with family and friends for the best-dressing, pound cake, potato salad and kool-aid. Geneva had a green thumb. Everything she touched grew, but her garden was her joy. She would spend hours and hours grooming her yard, so that it was perfect. Geneva loved to watch all sports: tennis, football, basketball, and golf. She especially enjoyed watching her grandchildren as they play: Granny was their biggest fan. Geneva was preceded in death by both parents, one son, Eddie; one great grand son, Brian Webb, Jr.; three brothers, Edgar, James and Cecil; three sisters, Patron, Marie and Emma; daughter-in-law, Eula. Cherishing her fond memories are her beloved companion, Joe Bates, two daughters; Anna, (Ernest), Linda, (Arthur), one son, Michael (Debbie) all of Milwaukee.
