I was his best friend forever & ever & ever he was the better half of my soul my eternal best friend I knew him from the store pick n' save in Sussex WI & we hit it off from there there were times it was rocky but 5 seconds later we forgave each other he came to all my family functions & my bday party & my sisters wedding with my other mommy Suzanne foster & we called ourselves the 3 amigos & etc I will miss going on outings & trips with him & etc & him taking me out on outings & going to the doctor he was the best family friend my whole family had especially after my beloved matka/mom died 4 yrs before George did I will miss him until the day that I die on this earth and then me & him & my matka/mom & grandpa can be all together again love ya buddy love ya prince Albert from your beautiful queen victoria love always britt & until we meet again may God & my family in heaven hold you in the palm of their hands good bye my love sleep well & have no more pain “ George had the warmest smile that complimented his kind heart. I used to help him with his travel arrangements so he could keep his zest for life entertained. The time was always filled with laughs as we projected what experiences the trip may bring. George will be missed.
