

Mr. George Aaron White Jr.

February 5, 1956 - September 5, 2017

GEORGIE'S STORY...GEORGE WHITE JR., affectionately known as "Georgie", to his family and friends, was born February 5, 1956 and was the only child to Ruth and George White Sr., both who preceded him in death. From the very beginning, Georgie was a smart, outgoing person, who everyone gravitated to. He attended Forestville Elementary School in Chicago, IL and graduated from Holton High School, in Holton, Indiana, where he lived with his favorite grandfather, James Winston. Whenever you encountered Georgie, he always had a smile on his face and was simply a pleasure to be around. When Georgie entered a room, the party started because in Georgie's heart, he was the party!! Georgie loved and took care of his family. He worked at Cook County Hospital, in Chicago, IL, as an orderly. Later, Georgie worked for Midwest Express Center, as a server, spreading his "joy". The love of his life, Vanessa, who preceded him in death, recognized this about Georgie and together, they became the proud parents of three daughters and one son. Georgie, also, enjoyed roller-skating and hanging out with his friends. Georgie made everyone feel special and genuinely loved. George White Jr. departed this life on September 5, 2017. He leaves to honor his memory and legacy his: one sister, Cassandra Wilson; stepfather, Eddie Buckhalter; one son, Aaron; three daughters: Alicia, Vanessa and Cheyenne; ten grandchildren: Aaron Lockhart Jr., La'Keyvia Lockhart, Na'Jah Louis, Nehemiah Louis, Q'Nyah Thompson, Amariah Lockhart, Aaliyah Lockhart, Arianna Lockhart, Nathan Lockhart, and Jaleen Lockhart; one great-grandchild, David Thomas III; and many, many family and friends, in Chicago, IL.
