

Mr. Giles Banks Liddell

February 12, 1924 - October 7, 2015

Giles Banks Liddell, Sr. was born on February 12, 1924 in Hinds County, Mississippi, to the union of Harvey C. Liddell, Sr. and Estella Banks Liddell. Their children, now deceased, were Gertrude, Harvey, Jr. and Anna. Giles attended Forrestville School and DuSable High School, both in Chicago, Illinois.

In 1943, Giles joined the United States Army, serving during the height of the Second World War. After military service, Giles returned to Chicago to continue his education and begin work. His first marriage was to Bertha Louise Manuel. They were blessed with two boys, Giles B. Liddell, Jr., and Charles Liddell.

As his technical skills grew, Giles became a long-time employee of the Zenith Corporation, working at the company's Franklin Park, Illinois plant. During this time, he also joined his brother and brother-in-law to open and operate a television repair shop near Garfield Boulevard on Wabash Avenue in Chicago.

Also during this time, Giles married Lilly Bell Thompson. The couple was blessed with a large and loving family that includes three boys, Gerald, Lavon and Nathaniel, as well as three girls, Connie, Lillie Lorraine and Annette. Giles also lovingly cared about his daughter Michelle Falconer. Giles loved all the children in his life.

After retirement, Giles moved to Milwaukee, Wisconsin, following his daughter's lead. He was subsequently joined there by his sons lavon and Nathaniel. In his later years, he was also joined by his brother Harvey, Jr., formerly of New Orleans, Louisiana.

Giles passed from our midst after a series of catastrophic illnesses at 8:25am on October 7, 2015 in Milwaukee. He enjoyed life and good health until the end.
