

Mrs. Girtha Lee Myers

October 27, 1950 - January 3, 2026

Girtha Lee Wheeler Myers, 75, of Milwaukee, passed away peacefully on Saturday, January 3, 2026.

Born October 27, 1950, in Collins, Mississippi, she dedicated her life to education, family and serving her community.

A proud graduate of Alcorn A&M College (Bachelor of Business Education, 1971) and National-Louis University (Master of Education, 1982), Girtha served Milwaukee Public Schools with distinction from 1980 to 2012. Her teaching career touched countless lives at Milwaukee Tech, James Madison, and Lady Pitts High Schools. She was an active member of the Milwaukee Teachers Education Association.

Girtha is survived by her devoted husband of fifty-one years, Johnny C. Myers, Jr.; daughters LaKeshia Myers (Milwaukee, WI) and Kayla Myers (Memphis, TN); and grandsons Khalil and Kameron Myers (Memphis, TN).

Her legacy of educational excellence and unwavering dedication to students will be remembered by all who knew her.

“ She started off as my teacher as Milwaukee Tech, then quickly became a family friend. My Mom babysat Nikki and Kayla and she helped me grow into maturity. I was even invited to attend her family functions (in and out of state). She became my son's godmother also. She will be truly missed!!! Rest in peace? Mrs. Myers.
