

Mrs. Gloria Shaw

March 31, 1933 - October 21, 2017

Gloria Mack was born March 31, 1933, in Lisbon, Louisiana, to the union of Simie and Burnette Mack. She was the second child of five children. Gloria attended school in Ruston, LA. She later moved to Lake Village, AR, where she met and united in holy matrimony with Freddie Lee Shaw. They moved to Milwaukee, WI and to this lovely union eleven children, seven girls and four boys were born. Gloria Shaw was a hard-working wife and mother. She worked at the Milwaukee Catholic Home, for 20 plus years and St. Mary's Hospital, until retirement. Gloria accepted Christ, at an early age. Her favorite TV evangelists were Jimmy Swaggert and Joel Olsten. The song, "Take Me to The King" was inspiring to her. The 23rd Psalms was her favorite scripture. She loved watching Judge Judy, going to rummage sales, decorating, planting flowers and helping others. Christmas was her favorite time of the year because her entire family would come together in celebration. She leaves to cherish her memory her: sisters: Delois Pruitt, Shirley Stubbs, and Rose Matthews, all of Chicago, IL; children: Deatrice (John) Love, LoVaughn, Supora, Fred, Rose (Edmond) Smith, Greg (Diane), Gloeva, Maverick, and Sheila (Kim), all of Milwaukee, WI; and a host of grands, great-grands and great-greatgrandchildren, nieces and nephews; including dear friends, Deborah Burt and Terri McClemore. Gloria was preceded in death by her: parents, Simie and Burnette Mack; sister, Mildred Walker; husband, Freddie Shaw; and two children, Roy Lee and Lorraine Shaw.
