

Mr. Homer Datioous Taylor

October 24, 1926 - August 18, 2016

HOMER DATIOUS TAYLOR was born to the union of Jessie and Homer Taylor on October 24, 1926 in Camp Hill, Alabama. He completed his schooling within the Camp Hill Public School System in Camp Hill, Alabama.

He accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior and was baptized at New Cannan Baptist Church in LaFayette, Alabama at an early age.

Homer served in the United States Army from April 1945 to October 1946. Homer lived in various cities before he moved to New York where he lived for many years. He then relocated to Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He worked for Crucible Steel before retiring in 1984. After retirement he worked several part-time jobs including driving the school bus for St. Peter-Immanuel Lutheran School.

Homer loved to fish. One of his greatest past times was to be out on the lake fishing with friends and family. His second passion was shooting pool. He was a member of several pool leagues and was very faithful in his attendance until his health begin to decline and he could no longer drive. He loved music especially the blues.

Homer Taylor departed this life on August 18, 2016. He was preceded in death
