

Ms. Ida Mae Lumpkins

January 8, 1936 - November 12, 2019

Ida Mae Lumpkins was born on January 8, 1936, to the union of John Earl Lumpkins and Jiretta Shumpert in Little Rock, Arkansas. She received her formal education at Dusable High School in Chicago, Illinois.

At a young age, Ida accepted Christ as her Savior and was united with St. Bethel Church. She was employed by Embassy Suite Hotel as a housekeeper, she was also employed by Spiegels as a packer until retirement. In her leisure, she enjoyed spending time with family and friends, playing spades, drinking, and listening to the blues.

On November 12, 2019, Ida Mae Lumpkins departed this life. She is preceded in death by her father, John Earl Lumpkins; mother, Jiretta Shumpert; sisters, Mattie Scott, and Rose Shumpert; great grandson, Justin Love; and great granddaughter, Jiretha Lumpkins.

She leaves to cherish her memory: daughter, Mayshell (Naomi) Giles; grandchildren, Jasmine Lumpkins, Jiretha Lumpkins, Jamiee Lumpkins, Michael Jones Jr., and Maeshell Jones; 26 great grandchildren; one great great granddaughter; and a host of friends and family.
