A Time to Be Born

Jacquelyn Carter was born Friday January 7th 1966 to the parents of Howard Stephens and Everbell Carter.

A Time to Plant

She received her formal education in the Milwaukee Public Schools system. She accepted Christ as her personal savior at an early age. Jacquelyn enjoyed her Sunday morning always known as her Jesus day. Jacquelyn believed that church is not defined by a building but rather by lives committed to loving God.

A Time to Love

Jacquelyn dedicated many years as a childcare provider. She really enjoyed being an inspiration to the families she worked with. She loved cracking jokes and giving advice. Jacquelyn enjoyed spending time with her children and grandchildren. She loved her family very much and was always there to give a helping hand. Not only was she nurturing to her children but others as well. She always took others under her wing and selflessly put others needs before her own. She really enjoyed cooking and always made abundance amount of food. She really found enjoyment with talking on the phone, listening to music and shopping for her grandchildren.

A Time to Sleep

Jacquelyn was diagnosis with Pancreatic Cancer September of 2018 she underwent some very intense treatments and beat cancer June 3 of 2019.

After the last battle with cancer on January 12, 2020 she transition from her earthly home to her heavenly home. She will truly be missed by all whom lives she touched.
