“ Well Pop it's your birthday. I was just remembering all of the years we celebrated with you in Milwaukee playing Bid Whist. I know your in a better place but I just can't stop missing you. I miss you tremendously. ##imported-begin##Nicole Cunningham##imported-end##

“ It has almost been a year since God called for you Pop. I reminisce on our great times together. Especially our card playing til wee hours of the morning. I wish you were still here so that I could tell you how much I love you and also to tell you about my fishing escapades.

I am suffering with moments where I think, "I wish I had said this" or "I wish I had done that," however, I know that even though I didn't do "this or that"..... you still loved me.

You will be forever in my heart. My love for you will be with me until God calls me as well. I love you and miss you soo much. Rest in peace.##imported-begin##Nicole Cunningham##imported-end##
