

Mr. James "Doc" Brown Jr.

December 25, 1959 - April 30, 2017

James Brown Jr. succumbed to health issues at the age of 57; he has now joined his loving mother, Paquita Brown and sister, Minnie Mae Brown. James was a Christmas baby and truly a gift to his loving parents. He was affectionately known by family and friends as Doc.

Doc was a defender to our nation as a United States Marine, but his greatest contributions to the world were his five children: Camille, Kandace, Nicky, Joseph, and Noelle. He is survived by his father, James Brown Sr. and a host of brothers and sisters. He was a son, brother, father, grandfather, uncle, and friend to so many.

Doc was the answer to all the questions one could never think to ask. He won't be missed, he already is.

We loved him in life; let us not forget him after death.

“ James “Doc” Brown was a noble friend to grow up with, and as our Marine Corp boot camp squad leader he was a man of honor, character and courage and a one hell of a pugilist. Rest in Peace my childhood friend - Semper-Fi United States Marine you will be missed but never forgotten.

Much love back at u
