

Mr. James McDonald Jr.

May 20, 1954 - December 9, 2021

JAMES MCDONALD JR.

James McDonald JR. was born on May 20th, 1954, to the union of James Sr. and Zula McDonald in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Friends and family simply called him 'Junior'.

He received his formal education from the Milwaukee Public School System. He graduated from Rufus King High where he was classified as a Track Star. Prior to retirement James was employed by numerous companies throughout the city.

"Junior" loved spending time with family, friends, his "A Team" fishing, watching the Green Bay Packers' and listening to his favorite singer, Jams Brown, "Poppa's Got a Brand-New Bag." No one had a chance at beating him for making his famous finger licking Bar-B-Que ribs. As a teenager he perfected his love for Bar-B-Que by digging a hole in the ground to cook ribs! James loved to drink his forty- ounce Miller beer in a brown paper bag.

James peacefully departed this life on Thursday December 9, 2021, in his home with family members by his side. He was preceded in death by his parents, James Sr.. and Zula McDonald.

James leaves to cherish his memory: two precious daughters, Angela Monique, and Ericka Lynette three grandsons, Skyler, David, and Jalen; four sisters, Nadine McDonald of Vallejo, California, Shirley Nelson, Debra Mack, and Sheila McDonald; one brother, Levi McDonald all of Milwaukee, a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.
