“ My memory is just being a typical teenager with my first cousin, Janis. We were born in the same year and same month, 29 days apart. Whether we were at the Chicago Regal Theater stage see Jackie Wilson and rushing to the stage to grab his hand when he came down from the stage or hanging out at the roller rink in Milwaukee, we laughed and talked about boys, of course. Janis could be very quiet and shy-like but she could also make some of the funniest comments and have you laughing so hard. Well, that's how I remember her. I am so grateful that I was able to talk with her just days before she passed having not spoken to her for about a year. Rest In Peace, Cuz. I loved and enjoyed every moment with you.

Three years ago when I was driving around looking for Ridgewood...management office, I saw a lady and her dog taken their daily walk and she pointed me in the right direction. We were neighbors and Janis was always Nice and Kind to me, we shared our fur babies stories. And I miss her already. It was my pleasure to know her. She will be missed and Sparkle as well.
