

Mr. Jason Matthews

July 20, 1965 - September 17, 2021

JASON MATTHEWS was born July 20, 1965, in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, to the union of James D. Matthews and Valaska Horton Matthews. He was raised in the Garden Homes Community and enjoyed the wonder and beauty of Lincoln Park and Garden Homes Elementary School.

He graduated from Whitefish Bay High School, in 1983. Jason loved football and was offered a scholarship to Jackson State University, from which he received his Bachelor's Degree, followed by Winona State University for post graduate studies in, Social Work.

Jay loved music. Many remember him as a tenor with the Heritage Chorale of Milwaukee as they entertained various organizations and congregations through the pain and splendor of Negro spirituals and classic songs of faith, justice, courage and love. He also enjoyed strumming his guitar; creating new chords, and lyrics.

He and his cousin, "Li Speech" of A. D., often harmonized and toyed with raps. They loved "Prince".

Big Jay, as he was affectionately called, also loved working with students at the Milwaukee Area Technical College (MATC) Learning Center. where his skills as teacher, counselor and listener were most evident. His students knew they were loved and respected. They knew he would guide them to their individual and collective successes. Jason was firm, with an expectant love and smile, as academic recommendations were freely given. He never wanted to lose a single student. He understood the challenges and encouraged them to always do "your best".

Jason cherished family. He was devoted to his mother, Valaska, and treasured their times together, particularly during the throes of the pandemic. His nephews, Terrance and Joshua and nieces, Jessica, Emelia and Eden were his joy! "Uncle Jay" will be forever remembered for his wit, stern lessons, and his laughter!

He was preceded in death by his father, James D. Matthews; and sister, Victoria Suzanne Watkins. He leaves to mourn his passing: mother, Valaska Horton Matthews; brother, David Matthews, MD; uncles, Michael Horton and Wilbert Horton; nieces, .Jessica Williams, little Johnna, Emelia and Eden Matthews; nephews, Terrance and Joshua Watkins; and a host of other aunts, uncles, cousins and friends in Milwaukee; Arizona, Georgia, Illinois, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri, and Virginia.

Inspiration: Jason posted this on his Facebook when Prince died.

“ MR. Jason Matthew, will forever be missed but not forgotten. 💔 I will never forget how Jason, help my daughter Nicole, when she signed up for MATC and he introduced her to a young man who gave her sound advice before she went in the Army. Jason, was one of a kind he always had time for everyone and he had such a great ❤️. I will always love Jason, for the person he was he also had a very funny side too. He could really make me laugh. My thoughts and prayers are with the family.

“ Big J was a good friend, great teammate at WSU and always a good time. We beat up many RB's QB's and Wannabes together and were fortunate enough to communicate intermittently over the last 30 years. Breaks my heart to know he's gone as the world lost a really, really good dude.

“ This one right here, is a hard one for me, as Jason was like a big brother to me. He was a sweet and kindhearted soul and he will truly be missed. Words just cannot explain how phenomenal he was. It was almost like nothing bothered him and he was always in a good mood. If you were feeling some type of way, you could always count on Jason to uplift you and make you forget about your problems. He was a great mentor and friend and he will never be forgotten or replaced.

“ I meet big J about seven years ago while working at MATC during this time we would meet passing in the hallway and discuss many things. 3 years ago my son receive a scholarship to Winona State University this was a proud moment in my life as my son was moving on in life I mentioned this to Big J and found out that he attended Winona State University. I brought my son to meet with Jason. Big J gave him excellent advice and I appreciate everything he said to my son now graduating this year. Big J you are truly going to be missed for all that you have done I appreciate you I love you my friend my brother RIP

“ Big Jay and I went to Winona State together. He caught lots of catfish in the Mississippi. Made me catfish and spaghetti all the time. He was good friends with my brother too. My mom was sad to hear about his passing as well. Jason touched everyone’s hearts that were blessed to know him. I have a great head shot my brother took of him 30 years ago, packed in a box in the garage somewhere. Took it along everywhere I’ve lived the last 30 years. RIP my friend.

“ The Heritage Chorale was truly blessed to have Jason ("Big J") as a member for a time, including a great tour to Europe. I remember his smile, his laughter, his marvelous tenor voice as he infused great joy into every song he performed with us. His spirit made our time with him wonderful.
He brought joy over the hills and throughout the valleys across the world and right here at home. Rest in peace, rest in peace our brother.

“ Jason was a beacon of light and sanity at MATC. He had the back of every student who ever encountered him (even if it didn't always look that way to the student!) and he had the back of every co-worker he trusted to do the same. I was one of the lucky ones. We compared notes, we played each other's guitars, and even after I left, we worked together. I have a pile of his cards in my drawer and whenever I came across an MATC student - and lots use the public library - who didn't have a go-to person, I'd give them Jason's card and say, "Just tell him a librarian gave it to you. He'll know." There's a hole in the fabric of the universe. May your memory be for a blessing, Jason.

“ To say I was shocked is an understatement. Jason is one of the first people I met when I started at MATC. He always had the good candy in his desk and I would use that as an excuse to go and chop it up with him. We were just reminiscing on his time in Minnesota and our love for the Vikings and Prince. He had a calming spirit about him. He shared his knowledge freely. I learned so much from him. I will miss you J. My love goes out to your family during this difficult time.

We shared conversations on recipes, spices especially garlic and the right way to cook it (smiling). Jason had the bomb candy dish, cherry laffy taffy's were my favorite. I am really sad to not have him to talk with and discuss our favorite dishes☐ Heaven has truly gain an angel. RIP Jason🙏
