Our #1 Responsibility

"Jerry"

We all were responsible for your care,

Mom said, don't come home without you, don't you dare!

You helped anyone who asked,

No matter what the task.

You never said no, and were always on the go.

You lived well little brother, you were loved by all.

You're at peace now, God made the call.

-Your big sister.

“ Jerry was my uncle, blood couldn't make us any closer then we were! He had a heart of gold and made sure those around him knew he cared. Many of my childhood memories include him. From the family barbeques at the lake or park playing basketball, throwing the football around, to walking around the neighborhood and rushing home so he wouldn't miss wrestling on tv satuday nights. So many more memories I could go on forever. His legacy will live forever in my heart.
