

Mr. Jessie James Warlick

May 6, 1930 - May 21, 2015

Jessie James 'Juke' Warlick was born May 6, 1930 to the late Rufus and Sallie Warlick in Jackson, Tennessee. At an early age, the family relocated to Gary, Indiana. Jessie then moved to Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Jessie united in Holy Matrimony to Delores (Cornelius) Warlick. He was a long-time and faithful member of Metropolitan Missionary Baptist Church in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

In his latter years, Jessie settled in Memphis, Tennessee, where he fellowshiped at Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church. Jessie served active duty in the United States Army, and is a Veteran of the Korean War.

Jessie loved photography! You could always count on him to capture any special moment with his flashing cameras or camcorder. What he loved more than photography was fishing. He took every opportunity to go on a bank and "wet his line." Lastly, if you were ever around Jessie, you were never hungry. The "moon was always full" at Jessie's house!

On Thursday, May 21, 2015, Jessie took the Morning Train to Glory. His departure was sweet, and he was surrounded by strength and love. He is preceded in death by his wife, Delores Warlick; his parents, Rufus and Sallie Warlick; four brothers, Rufus, Charlie, Walter, and Jack; five sisters, Lizzie, Vera, Birdie, Irene, and Corine; three half-sisters, Ruby, Hattie Mae, and Rosetta; two step-sons, Robert Lee and James Lee.

He leaves to cherish his precious memories: his daughter, Constance (Robert) Cherry of, Memphis, TN; one step-daughter, Donna (Willie) Simpson of Milwaukee, WI; a God-daughter Linda Onyilofor of Milwaukee, WI; long time friend, Maggie Wilks of Memphis, TN; a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, loved ones, and friends.
