

Mr. Joe Allison

October 1, 1940 - January 2, 2024

Joe Frank transitioned peacefully from this life the morning of January 2, 2024.

Joe Frank was born and raised in Brownsville, Tenn on October 1, 1940.

Joe Frank began his life in Milwaukee, WI when he and his former spouse, Dorothy (Allison) Taylor relocated in 1961. Mid-City Foundry, is where Joe Frank poured hot iron for many years as a means to support his growing family. He later moved on from that line of work and became a Longshoreman Dock Worker where he would gain many stories that excited his grandchildren, great-great grandchildren, and nieces and nephews years later. That career was cut short in 1970 when Joe Frank suffered severely from an auto accident, leaving him unable to secure work. However, if you knew Joe Frank, you know that if there's a will, there's a way, and he found a way! Joe Frank was and is loved by many near or far and his presence demanded respect.

Joe Frank was presided in death by parents Walter and Callie Mae Allison, sisters: Betty Lou Allison, Willie Mae Booker, Opal Mae King, Leenover Brown, Essie Pirtle and Brother Walter Allison Jr. Children: Daughter Linda Allison and Son Jerry Allison. Grandchild: Jerrmaine Cole. Joe Frank is survived by: wife Angela Allison, Brother Will Allison, Sister Bobbie Allison, Children: Joe Frank Allison Jr. Theretha Diann King (Robert), Darlene Allison, Michelle Jelks (Terry), Iris Allison, Corey Allison, and lifelong friend and mother of his children Dorothy Taylor.
