

Mr. Johnnie L. Taylor

September 1, 1941 - January 25, 2024

Johnnie L. (Frank) Taylor was born on September 1, 1941, to the union of John Edward Sr. and Della Mae (Jackson) Taylor in Covington, Tennessee. Frank was one of thirteen children born to this union.

He professed hope in Christ at an early age and attended St. Luke Missionary Baptist Church in Covington, TN. He later relocated to Milwaukee, Wisconsin and became a member of Damascus Missionary Baptist Church, along with many other Taylor family members.

Frank married Annie (Rowsey) Taylor in 1958, and eight wonderful children were born to this union. He was a "proud" and savvy businessman, having owned several Shell gas stations and bars throughout the city of Milwaukee. He also owned some of the most beautiful and CLEAN luxury vehicles. The blue and white two door Buick Riviera was his favorite, and he didn't hesitate to establish some ground rules before you could ride in it! He possessed a beautiful and infectious smile with a wonderful sense of humor.

Johnnie L. (Frank) Taylor peacefully departed this life on January 25, 2024. He was preceded in death by his: parents, John Edward Sr. and Della Mae Taylor; four brothers, Larry, Sonny, William, and John Edward Jr.; and three sisters, Dorothy, Louise, and Rose.

He leaves to cherish his memory: nine children, Frank Taylor Jr.. Sheena

Taylor, Litisha (Johnny) Malone, Yvette (Adam) Brostowicz, Ignatius (Thelma) Taylor, Reginald Taylor, Alonzo Taylor, Cornelius Taylor, and Jeffrey Taylor; siblings, Rev. Walter (Edna) Taylor, James Taylor, Rev. Nathaniel Taylor, Charles Taylor, Lue Vern Taylor, Sandra Taylor, AD Jackson, and William Jackson; 25 grandchildren, 26 great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.
