

Mr. Joreka R. Brooks

November 7, 1974 - August 6, 2024

Joreka Rashad Brooks was born on November 7, 1974, to Lenward Jackson and Deatrice Brooks in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He graduated from Madison High School in Milwaukee, WI, and worked for Milwaukee County Transit System for 16 years.

If you knew Joreka, you knew when he arrived in the room, he showed up with his smile first and something funny to say second. He was known for his infectious laugh and for being the life of the party. When he showed up, he always smelled and looked good. We all knew that "Joe", as we lovingly called him, thought he was the best basketball player in the world. If you lost to him in the game, you were going to hear about it for months on end. With Tupac songs playing in the background. his favorite pastime was spending time with his daughters and granddaughter.

Joreka was a passionate father; grandfather; uncle, cousin, brother, and friend. Joreka's passing was sudden and unexpected, but we are confident and have a good will to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord (2 Corinthians 2:5). While we lost our most beloved dad and grandfather. many have lost a friend and loved one in him. He has been a rock to many, a master at sarcastic humor and witty timing to others, and even a glorious pain in the neck. but once you were marked as important to him, he'd be by your side If you needed him, There was so much more to him than just a dad, though to us that was his greatest role, We will always carry his memory in our hearts.

Joreka Rashad Brooks peacefully departed this life on August 6, 2024. He was preceded in death by his: grandfather, Bobby Brooks; grandmother; Viola Brooks: and mother, Deatrice Brooks. Many of his favorite people are left behind to cherish his memory, including his: daughters and granddaughter; Akina Coleman, Sanai Brooks, Gabby Brooks, and Madison Wilks; and a host of family members and friends who loved him dearly.
