“ When I reflect back on my memories of Joyce courage,faith and humility come to mind She never once told me that she was suffering instead she gave of her own life and comforted others I guess many people cannot explain the true fears that haunt them Joyce however understood the uncertainty of her future an incurable disease,losing her job and the daily routine,can cause paralyzing fear in everyone But outside these things there often lurks a fear that is inexplicable It affects the deepest stirrings of our spirit and has a churning presence It is in the death of a loved one Her courage in silence echoes in the cracked walls at Fulton County She was a pillar of life in the workplace for many of us during the good and now troubled times She told me that there is only one sure cure for a life that is dominated by fear and that is a living faith in Jesus Christ She shared her faith with many others that fear and faith cannot co-exist in the same life THANK YOU JOYCE for these GOD moments##imported-begin##Leann M. “ to The Family of Joyce,
It was with great pleasure meeting Joyce. Joyce was full of life and a loving spirit. I will always remember her wearing her hats, taking pocketbook with her everywhere she went and I can not forget her coat that she throw over her arm. "Earthly rose that have made it to Heaven garden". May God give strenght and comfort to you. I will miss her.##imported-begin##Bridget##imported-end##

“ To the Bryant Family, I was saddened to hear of the passing of Joyce. We grew up together on 6th Street in Milwaukee. As children, we referred to her as "LuLu" She will be greatly missed. You are in my prayers and thoughts during this difficult time. Know that God is a great comforter and He will strengthen you. Love you all. Gina you are a tower of strength.##imported-begin##Vickie##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the Bryant Family,

During this time of great sorrow, may it comfort you to know that others are deeply touched by your loss. I too know the pain of losing someone dear. Even though our hearts are broken, rest assure that our Grand Creator cares about you personally 1Peter5:7 and can help you though this difficult time.

Revelation 21:4 speaks of a time soon when God will do away with death forever. There will be no more sorrow, heartache, or pain.

May your happy memories and sure scriptural hope comfort your hearts during this painful time.
