“ I will miss you so much nephew. You had your whole life ahead of you with the love of life. I wish we had more time you and I. My heart is so heavy with losing you, it still doesn't even feel real. Even though you were a grown man I still remember that little dude I'd play cars with or go get ice cream from Robert's. Love you Nephew my dear shining star.

Juan, you will always be apart of my family. You were another son to me. I swear I still laugh at those pictures of you and Jerrell with those little track shorts on. The nights you and the rest of the guys spent at my house working my nerves and eating all my cereal up. You are missed so much by so many. Heaven truly gained an angel. RIP hunny bunny💙

My Buddy...
This is just unreal my heart is deeply heavy. There's times a thought of you crosses my mind and the pain in my chest is indescribable. I remember being at Neighborhood House, you'd come early in the morning to catch the bus for school we would have our one on one talks about life, about choices. There's things I wish I had a chance to say to you... Like how proud of you I am and how much I love you and support your vision to do great things in the community. Know this... You will never be forgotten until we meet again little buddy RIP my NH nephew...
