

Julia "Julie Fayne Quezaire

August 14, 1942 - May 25, 2017

"JULIE" was born on August 14, 1942, In Memphis, TN, to the late Ester B. Fayne and Lottie Mae Rhodes. She transitioned the morning of May 25, 2017. She graduated from West Division High School in Milwaukee, WI and later, attended Milwaukee Area Technical College. In 1960, she married William Green. This union produced two daughters, Alicia & Toni Green. In 1967, Julie was blessed with another daughter, Gabrielle Adams. Julie's love for life and infectious personality caught the attention of Earl Quezaire Jr., the love of her life, in Spring of 1980. They married on May 20, 1988. Earl was a "packaged deal", with two sons, Aaron and Danon, and a daughter, Cassandra. Julie and Earl's love story was written over 29 years. The blending of their families was a natural transition. Julie's personality was a perfect fit for employment, as a photo processor at LL Cook, a front desk clerk at Village Valet and a sales associate for Target. Her interests included: spending time with family, reading, crossword puzzles, "fine dining", dancing and computer games. After retirement in 2003, Julie and Earl moved to Ripley, TN. Julie was preceded in death by her: parents, Ester B. and Lottie Mae Fayne,; daughters, Alicia and Toni Green; son, Danon Quezaire; brothers, James and Donald Fayne; and father-in-law, Earl Quezaire Sr. Mrs. Quezaire is survived by her: loving husband, Earl of Ripley, TN; two sisters, Minnie B. Jones of Henning, TN and LueEster Yancey of Milwaukee, WI; two daughters, Gabrielle Adams of Milwaukee, WI and Cassandra Hardaway of Atlanta, GA; two sons, Lawrence Wise of Milwaukee, WI and Aaron Quezaire of Killeen, TX; and mother-in-law,

Rovella Quezaire of Milwaukee, WI; ten grandchildren; and a host of other relatives.
