

Mr. Justin Aaron McGee

December 11, 1990 - September 28, 2012

Justin Aaron McGee was born on December 11, 1990 in Milwaukee, Wisconsin to the union of Yvonne L. McGee and Anthony Aluko.

Justin accepted Christ as his Savior at an early age and was baptized at the age of twelve. Justin enjoyed the 23 Psalms. He was a member of the New Covenant Temple UHCA. He sang in the new Covenant Temple Angle Choir as child and served as a Junior Deacon. He participated in many programs.

Justin received his formal education in the Milwaukee Public School System. He attended Hopkins Elementary, Milwaukee School of Languages, Washington High School, and Truth Institute.

He earned his G.E.D. in 2010 and studied film at MATC. Justin worked at UPS, the U.S. Census Bureau, and Wisconsin State Fair. In his leisure, Justin enjoyed rapping, dancing, playing video games, and spending time with his family and friends.

Justin became the proud father of Lauryn Nicole McGee on November 3, 2010. He loved his "Launi". He always said: "God gave him a "Gorgeous" daughter. Justin was musically inclined and loved all kinds of music. He played drums and took guitar lessons. Justin enjoyed history and geography;

he could tell you the capital of any city in any providence or state around the world and share their cultural traditions. He loved to travel and was a NFL fanatic. He loved football, especially those Green Bay Packers; his favorite player was Aaron Rodgers. Justin survived an asthma attack that left him with a brain injury last year. He had to learn to do everything all over again. Justin was still forward focused and committed his life to God more so. His goals were to share the goodness of God with those around him, spend time with his daughter, get a job, and finish school. He was taking steps to do all of those things through, IRIS (include respect I-self-direct) adult services program, and through "My Father's House Inc.", a support program to help men become better fathers.
