“ I am so sorry for your loss. I will be forever saddened by the fact that we had drifted apart. I have thought of her often over the years, but never picked up the phone. She was a wonderful person. Always taking care of others and neglecting herself. Her family always came first and I will always treasure our time together at the Dells. She was so happy that she could give you kids a nice vacation. She will be deeply missed by all the lives that she touched. Keep her memory alive in her grandkids of whom she was so totally proud. Keep the faith and be strong. God doesn't make mistakes.##imported-begin##Martha Monroe##imported-end##
