“ Pops, you were a great fraternity brother and embodied everything that Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. stands for. Even though you are gone, I take solace in knowing that you are now free from all pain and sickness that plagued you for so many years. I pray God's grace, mercy and comfort on your family during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Meredith Rogers##imported-end##

“ Kenneth affectionally known as "Pops, I miss you so much. I missed you at UAPB's Homecoming, but the Lord wanted you to come to your "Heavenly Homecoming". I love and miss you Pops. I loved you as my Fraternity Brother and I loved you as my friend. Your life was an inspiration for others to follow because you kept on going despite your sickness. You are now free from sickness and pain. Pops, it is my prayer that we meet again in the after life. When I see you at the Pearly Gates, I will be the one saying "Blue-Phi!!!".

May God bless the family of Pops, as they bereave over their loss.
Pops was a great man.

Love,
Este

“ To: Family of Kenneth Cooper

*A soldier has past a transforming test,
After a long, hard earthly battle
God has called him to take a rest,
His body is sleep,
But his soul is now awake,
We as friends realize,
That death is hard to take,
Try to look at this
As God would have you to do,
He loves his children ,
And wants them to come home too,
KennethPops will always be with us,
And a great way to be,
We will continue with him
In all our great memories ,
Fight on family for we are not thru,
Cause in eternity we shall see him too*

*Love, TERRILL and Cina MCCRAY##imported-begin##Terrill &

“ Pops as he was affectionately called by his Sorors, Frat, and friends at UAPB will be missed. All who met him have fond memories of him, for he was nothing but pure love and joy. Like a dove, he's been released from this world but he'll forever live in our hearts. To the family, may God supply you with strength, comfort and peace during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Soror Shannon R. Hendrix##imported-end##
