“ I meet Kim when I started with AT&T. Over the years we became close. Kim was sure a fun person to hang out with. Kim and I would do water aerobics, chair yoga classes together. We would go to lunch at her favorite place, breakfast at my favorite spot, hours on phone laughing. Kim was a true friend to me, and a true friend is never truly gone. Her spirit lives on in the memories of those who loved her. Our condolences to the Hollins Family, may God strength at this time. Wanda James & Family

“ Kim and I shared our breaks and lunches together for years at AT&T. We would go for walks or just sit, talk and laugh. She had a good sense of humor, very intelligent and a world class traveler. I will really miss you Kim. My condolences to the family. Rest in Heaven Kim. Love, Brenda Lawrence-Gillum.
