“ We met at Northridge mall. Lacy came into my store with a single red rose and told me I was the most beautiful woman he had ever seen. We talked all night and at the end of the conversation he asked me to marry him. We were together for over 20 years after that initial meeting and had four children together, Versailles, Zoe, Maximillion and Collinwood. We had many small moments and great adventures I will never forget...I remember our special date at Pieces of Eight as well as our wedding dinner there. I remember taking Versailles to Disneyland together, you singing the most beautiful girl in the world to Zoe when she was a newborn, you washing the car and picking up red snapper to welcome Collin home, you making the turkey when Max came home Thanksgiving day. I remember you bringing me haagen daz icecream bars and bosc pears when I was pregnant with Versailles. I remember my first mothers day when you put Versailles in his swing with a bouquet of flowers. I remember your surprise party at Ground Round. I remember the special times we just hung out. It was dramatic, it was sad, it was extreme, but Lacy It Was Epic and It Was Avalon. I will never forget it and the real epic you better be waiting at the gate when I get there...with a single red rose....Deborah
