

Ms. Laurine LaGrant

March 5, 1935 - March 6, 2026

Laurine LaGrant. a woman of grace and remarkable skill. passed away peacefully on March 6. 2026. just one day after celebrating her 91st birthday.

Born in Covington. Tennessee. to Susanah A. Topps and General Grant Means. Laurine later moved to Milwaukee. Wisconsin. where she built a beautiful life and lasting legacy. She was known for her open doors and big heart. always providing a place of refuge for family. She played a special reconnect with their heritage. identity and one another. To many, her home was a place filled with dignity, pride, and family connection.

Laurine was a talented seamstress who earned her license from Milwaukee Area Technical College. She turned her love for fabric and design in to a lifelong craft, using her gift and creativity in a way that reflected both her skills and her spirit.

Laurine received Christ at an early age and maintained her faith in Jesus Christ until her final breath.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Susanah Susanah A. Topps and General Grant Means: her son. Timothy LaGrant: her sisters, Ida Mae Jackson and Florence Means: and her brothers. Robert Means and William Means.

She leaves to cherish her memory her four loving children: Susie Dickerson. Robert (Darlene) LaGrant. Gwen Davis. and Joseph LaGrant. Her legacy of love lives on through her 14 grandchildren. 20 great-grandchildren. and 13 great-great-grandchildren. She also leaves behind her beloved siblings: Cassie Greer. Eve Thompson. Wilma Lucille Cox. Dorothy Means. Arden Means. Mardell Means. Bertha Means.

Donnell Means. Jerry Means. and Roosevelt Means: along with a host of nieces. nephews. extended family members. and dear loved ones whom she cherished deeply.

Cemetery Details

Graceland Cemetery

6401 N. 43rd St.
Milwaukee, WI

Previous Events

Visitation

MAR 19. 10:00 AM - 11:00 AM (CT)

St. Martin Deporres Catholic Church
128 W. Burleigh St.
Milwaukee, WI

Funeral Service

MAR 19. 11:00 AM (CT)

St. Martin Deporres Catholic Church
128 W. Burleigh St.
Milwaukee, WI