

Mr. Leeotis Carr Jr.

October 13, 1954 - April 17, 2018

Leeotis Carr, Jr. was born the middle child to the union of Mr. Leeotis and Daisy (Worton) Carr, Sr. in Milwaukee Wisconsin on October 13, 1954.

He received his formal education in Milwaukee Public Schools, attending Keefe Avenue Elementary School, Parkman Middle/Junior High School and Rufus King High School.

Leeotis accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized by the late Rev. E.M. Kelly at Metropolitan Missionary Baptist Church. He later reconfirmed his relationship with God and reunited with Metropolitan under the leadership of Rev. Brandle C. Morrow.

Leeotis was affectionately known as "Little Lee" by his family and friends. His neighbors knew him as the "Mayor of 14th Street", where he resided since 1963. Nothing could happen on his block and he not know ALL about it!

Leeotis was employed as a welder for Milwaukee Road for many years. In Leeotis' leisure time, he enjoyed gardening - no one was allowed to cut his grass other than him, cracking jokes - laughing at his own jokes louder than anyone else, dancing - he had a signature move that the entire family loves to try and duplicate, he enjoyed sitting on the porch, conversing with whomever would pop up and fishing.

Leeotis gained eternal life on Tuesday, April 17th, 2018. He was preceded in death by his father, Leeotis Carr, Sr.; his sister, Andrea Harris; his grandparents, James Sr. and Evelyn Horton; his uncles, James Horton, Jr. and Joseph E. Horton. Leeotis leaves to cherish fond memories: his wife of 39 years, Letha Carr; step-son, Kyrus Porch; four grandchildren; two great grandchildren; his mother, Daisy Carr (Leroy Saulsberry); brothers, D'angelo (Ophelia) Carr and Dwight Carr; sister, Claudette Williams; and his favorite uncle, Gregory (Daphne) Horton, all of Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He is further survived by a host of cousins, family and friends.
