Lemon was a devoted husband and father. He married his wife Sadie Eisom Bolds, January 20, 1968. To this union 5 children were born. God gave him an amazing strength and the abundant gift of Love to take care of them. He devoted his life to his family. Our dad was a self-employed salesman and an educator. He taught us that hard work pays off, that this life is far from easy, that anything you desire you must work hard for and that nothing is handed to you on a silver platter. His main words were, "Time to get up and hustle." He also taught us how to love life, the people in it, that family is always important and the best thing you got, so we should cherish each other. In the words of his granddaughter Chiquita, "My grandpa is the sweetest Lemon I know."

Lemon leaves to cherish his memories and legacy to his beautiful wife Sadie Bolds, two sons Marlon Qualls of Ripley, Tennessee and Mark Bolds of Milwaukee, Wisconsin; three daughters Gertrude (Barry) Jones of Ripley, Tennessee, Carla Bolds of Milwaukee, Wisconsin and Monica (Abou) Ly of Milwaukee, Wisconsin and his God daughter Tennelle Worsham of Chicago, Illinois.
