

Mr. LeRoy Randolph Ford

August 8, 1950 - October 4, 2024

LeRoy Randolph Ford (1950 - 2024)

LeRoy Randolph Ford, 74 of Milwaukee, WI passed away on Friday, October 4, 2024 after a battle with cancer.

LeRoy, affectionately know as Pepper, was born in Milwaukee in 1950 to William R. And Dale G. Ford as their youngest and only son. LeRoy attended and graduated from Riverside High-school before going on to study education at the Historically Black University Jackson State University in Jackson, Mississippi where he received his bachelors degree.

After graduating from Jackson State, he went on to be a teacher at Audubon Middle School in August 1985. LeRoy remained a teacher for the Milwaukee Public School system for 39 years, where he positively touched the lives of students, teachers and administrators across Milwaukee county. He retired from MPS, but continued to contribute to the lives of Milwaukee youngsters as a substitute teacher until 2024.

LeRoy was preceded in death by his father William Ford and Mother Dale Ford and is survived by his three sisters Brenda, Devon, twin sister Hannah and several nieces and nephews.
