

Mr. Leroy Paul Williams, Sr.

April 24, 1960 - May 11, 2026

Everything in life has a season, a beginning and an end. Although life has its seasons, it's the journey that you take during life that defines who and what you will become. Leroy Paul Williams' season took him on an exciting journey through life that led him to happiness and fulfillment, until his season ended. He lived his life as a loving son, brother, father, uncle, and friend.

Leroy Paul Williams' season of life began on April 24, 1960. He was born in Chicago, Illinois to the union of John and Emma Williams. When he was 11, our family relocated to Wisconsin. Leroy accepted Christ as his Savior at an early age. He was baptized at the age of 12 at Saving Grace Church, where he played the bass. He always had a strong faith and kept it throughout his life. Leroy was educated at West Division High School in Milwaukee, WI, where he played basketball and was one of the most popular boys in the school, which seemed to carry throughout his life.

After working several odd jobs, Leroy became an entrepreneur. He opened and operated two childcare facilities in the Milwaukee area for years. Leroy stated that God had given him his greatest gift by giving him his children. His hobbies and personal time were spent with family, fishing, playing his guitar, boxing, and at church. He also enjoyed cooking, laughing, and joking; he was a fun, loving man that never met a stranger. Everyone was a friend.

Leroy's exciting journey and season in life ended on May 11, 2026. He was preceded in death by his: parents, John Williams and Emma Owen; sisters, Shirley Walker, Anne Williams, and Kim Williams; and brothers, Rodrick

Williams, 5 Aka Jerome Williams, and Marcus Williams.

He leaves to cherish his memory: son, Leroy Williams Jr.; daughter, Christin Dixon; grandchildren, Jaisley Dixon, Jaedah, Dixon, and Jaese Dixon; brothers, John (Terri) Williams, Darryl Williams, and Ronald (Marpassa) Willis; sisters, Deirdre (Tim) Williams and Karen Figures; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Although Leroy's journey and season in life is complete, his memory will live on in all of us. This is a huge loss for our family. Words cannot express how much he will truly be missed.
