Auntie Lillian, I'm really going to miss you. I am so sad you had to go but I am happy you made peace and prepared in such a short time to go home to be with our Lord. Lillian your faith and strength, I will always remember, it boosted my faith even more. I have always admired you for many things. I could speak on and on about you. Growing up, your work ethic was impressive to me and how you could or would just fix things. So independent. You have the biggest heart ❤️ of gold and a extremely forgiving heart. You would give your shirt off your back if necessary. W that you learned from grandma she was the same way. I'm going to miss that that I could talk too you about anything. You also were every supportive person foen to earth. I learned alot from you. Always so confident, in life. I admire how you handled yourself, how independent you have always been. I remember you having your own property and fixing thing that break all on your own. That always amazed me.
