“ Words cannot describe the pain I feel acknowledging that on Easter, Memorial’s Day, Thanksgiving and Christmas I will no longer walk into your home and see you in the kitchen cooking. I would love another chance to run errands for gravy packets for the roast, chicken broth for the dressing and whatever else you needed because we all knew by 4-5pm we’d be enjoying a great meal and eating until our stomachs hurt. I will never forget you. I’m saddened that the world has loss such a giving, strong, beautiful black woman but knows Heaven has gained a wonderful soul. I’m grateful to have been in your presence your time here on earth and thank God that your suffering has ended. It has been very difficult to not mourn in your absence but it’s a lot easier to celebrate the life you lived and shared with so many.

Thank you and I love you Linda.##imported-begin##Victoria##imported-end##

“ Linda I love and appreciate everything you have done for me. Since I was a kid you always made me feel like I was a part of the family. Holidays were the best you always made sure there was enough food for everyone to eat might I add you made the best greens and mac & cheese. Love you always.
