

Mr. Lloyd "Chile" Williams

September 20, 1951 - June 5, 2017

Lloyd was born in September 1951 in Vaiden, Mississippi to the union of Junior and Lorene (Hull) Williams. On Monday, June 5, 2017 at 11:40 a.m. God sent an angel to carry him home. Known mostly by family and friends as "Chile", he is resting in the bosom of God. He joined First Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Penn and also attended Westside High School in Gary, Indiana. He was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Joseph and Blanch Hull, two uncles, Joseph and John Hull and one aunt, Ora Lee Hull, step-father, Tilman Sims and his eldest son Jared Williams. He served his country in the United States Marine Corps. He worked in different occupations over the years but he loved his most recent employment at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee and the students loved him. He leaves to cherish his memories: his devoted wife of 17 years Julia Parker-Williams; his mother Lorene Sims, two sons, Demarco Williams and Tevin Williams, two step-sons, Johnny Parker (Yolanda) of Milwaukee, WI, and Jeffrey Parker (Delphia) of Oklahoma City, Ok, four brothers, Tramo Sims (Sandra), Randolph Sims (Latoya), John Sims (Nakeisha) all of Milwaukee, WI and Willie Lewis Sims (Sheila) of Houston, Texas, three sister-in-laws, Martha Evans of St. Louis, MO, Sally Lewis (Bobby) and Ada Watson, one brother-in-law, John Parker all of Milwaukee, WI and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
