“ Man it's hard to believe you're gone. You will always be the best friend I ever had. Will always remember when you came to my aid when I was in some serious trouble. I will never forget how you stepped in and helped me out. That was the kind of guy you were. I will never forget that I didn't come to see you when you asked me to. Thinking we had time I put it off telling you I was just too busy. For all you done for me. And I couldn't come when you asked me to come. I do say my friend. I am so sorry. The only consolation I have, is knowing we will see each other again. Surrounded by and engulfed in the light of glory. I wish I would of been asked to speak at the funeral. Because I would of shared other memories. We would talk for hours and hours on the phone. We'll talk again. It's not goodbye. It's I'll be seeing you later. Jeff H.
