

Mother Lucy Madlock Robertson

November 21, 1929 - April 12, 2016

On November 21, 1929 Jessie B. Madlock and Hattie Mary Nelson Madlock were blessed with the birth of their daughter, Lucy Madlock. She was the second oldest child of nine siblings. She was born and raised in Sardis, Mississippi. She was united in marriage to the late R.V. Robertson on December 27, 1944. To this union nine children were born. One child has preceded her in death. Mother Lucy was a housewife and a church mother under the leadership of Apostle Curtis Robinson. Although she wasn't a preacher, she did preach many life sermons by the way she lived her life. She dedicated her life to God and helping others. Her favorite song was "God will fight your Battles If You Keep Still".

Mother Robertson faced many difficult battles with her health throughout the years. She was called home on Tuesday, April 12, 2016 at St. Luke's Hospital. She is preceded in death by her parents, Jessie and Hattie Madlock and 3 siblings Louis Green

Madlock,

Walter Madlock and Lee Bertha Madlock Towns.

She leaves to cherish her memory her children, Fannie McMurry (Walter) of Milwaukee,

“ My last memory of Grandma Lucy is spending as much time with her as I could before she passed. We watched a little tv which was the Ten Commandments . She was telling me who pharroh was and before she went to sleep, I grabbed her hand and said "I love you grandma" and she said " I love you too"
