

Mrs. Mamie R.M. Gay

January 22, 1928 - March 5, 2016

Mamie Ruth Lambert was born on January 22, 1918 to the union of Erma Lambert and Walter Bunn in Harrell, Arkansas. Mamie's primary education was in Arkansas and she received her formal education within the Milwaukee Public School System attending Lincoln High School.

She accepted Christ as her Savior at a very young age and was united with King Solomon Missionary Baptist Church.

Mamie Ruth Lambert was united in holy matrimony with Donald E. Gay, Sr. on June 28, 1947 in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Their union was blessed with four children.

She was employed by Milwaukee Public Schools as a Kitchen Helper. In her leisure, Mamie enjoyed baking, sewing, cooking and shopping. While her children were young, Mamie was a homemaker.

She loved her children and provided them with unconditional love.

Mamie Gay departed this life on March 5, 2016. She was preceded in death by: parents, Erma White and Walter Burin, step-father, Charles White; sister, Joyce White; brothers, Clearence Neal and James White; and son, Gregory Gay.

She leaves to cherish her memory: two sons, Donald E. (Mary) Gay Jr. and Andrade (Beatrice) Gay; one daughter, Janice Gay of Milwaukee; two sisters-in-laws, Bessie Neal of Milwaukee and Eleanor White of Indiana; four grandchildren: Leon Groce, Ariel Gay of Milwaukee; Tia N. Gay and Justin D. Gay of Illinois; two nephews, Stevan White of Milwaukee and Glen Gay of Texas; one niece, Christina Gay of Texas and one special friend, Earlie C. McCrary of Milwaukee.
