

Mrs. Marcell Robbins

September 15, 1923 - December 30, 2014

Mrs. Marcell Robbins was born on September 15, 1923 in the quaint town of Carthage, Mississippi; the first born to the union of the late Dan and Callie Harvey. She departed life with the sunrise on December 30th.

It was in Carthage, where Marcell received her formal education; and at an early age confessed her faith in Christ. It was also down these dirt roads she found the love of her life, Wiley Robbins, to whom she would later be joined in holy matrimony for 57 years until his death.

Quite the courageous woman, Marcell at a young age, joined the great black migration north to Chicago. She lived there until marriage carried her further north to the last leg of her journey, Milwaukee, Wisconsin; where she had two children, Wiley and Sharon and a dog named Pal.

Before becoming a full-time devoted wife and mother, she would work as a CNA at the Milwaukee County Mental Complex. the quintessential wife you could always find Marcell baking, cooking, gardening or knitting before relaxing down to her daily dose of nighttime T.V.

Marcell was preceded in death by her parents, husband Wiley, brother, J.L. Harvey, and sister, Quillie Wicks.

She leaves to carry her memories: sister, Dessie Brown of Milwaukee, WI; children, Wiley Robbins II and Sharon Juniel both of Milwaukee, WI; four grandchildren, Tamara, gavin and Eva of Milwaukee, WI; and Markita of Austin, TX; six great-grandchildren; one great-great grandchild; favorite nieces and nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.
