He accepted Christ at an early age and grew up attending St. Phillip Lutheran Church and School. He leaves to cherish his loving memory: his mother Jeraldine Cox Berry of Jackson, Tennessee, his son Marcus Berry Jr. Milwaukee, Wisconsin, one brother Angelo A. Berry of Jackson, Tennessee, one nephew Varkaneus D'Angelo Berry of Jackson, Tennessee a host of uncles, aunts, cousins, other relatives and friends.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

“ To Jerry and the Berry and Cox families

Marcus was so special to the Metropolitan Baptist Church Food Ministry. A special friend/son to Sister Laverne Smith. He was always polite and protective of us.

May his soul rest in peace.
