

Margie Ree Harris

April 18, 1943 - March 1, 2009

No obituary found for this tribute.

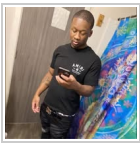

Tribute Wall

JA

“ Jacqueline Atieno lit a candle in memory of Margie Ree Harris ”

jacqueline atieno - February 25, 2022 at 11:52 AM

“ Bernice Jackson lit a candle in memory of Margie Ree Harris ”

Bernice Jackson - February 13, 2021 at 12:14 AM

LG

“ Lillie Gaither lit a candle in memory of Margie Ree Harris ”

Lillie gaither - June 28, 2020 at 01:35 PM

ZA

“ She was a loving woman and loved god he took her were she should be and she always way says if you knew were god was taking me you would stop crying ”

zakaria - February 21, 2020 at 01:44 AM

RJ

I just watched "Grandma's House" & it reminded me of my Grandma. She also was very wise, God fearing, & loved us unconditionally. She was always praying for everyone. God had her in his hands, He never let her go. The film touched my Heart & stirred my Soul. It made me long for all those teachings my Grandma passed down to me. Now I do it for my 4 year old grandson, Nicholas. Thank you for sharing your Grandma's legacy. She would love that. My name is Raven Jones from Brooklyn. Loving life in the here & looking forward to living the rest with God. Amen.

Raven Jones - June 18, 2020 at 08:24 AM

NA

Omg I just watched grandma house and it made me cry I wish I would have met her she seem like such a nice lady I know my kids would have loved her especially Alissa my oldest she's only 6 and she knows GOD LIKE SHE BEEN HERE BEFORE 🙏🙏🙏

Nakiesha - October 23, 2020 at 06:51 PM

CA

Amen my name is Curtis allen I'm from texarkana texas and I love the story about her

Curtis allen - November 17, 2020 at 03:21 AM

MJ

My Name is Marie Johnson from Barstow, Ca. I love that movie Grandma house it was so inspiring and very touching. I want my daughters and my grand kids to be raised in a godly up bringing. if there was more grandmother like yours there would be better people in this world. I'm a grandmother to two beautiful grand daughters, I want to be that one who they can always no that when they see me I will always in courage them to love and respect there self and too always put God first. that they will see the God in me in everything I do ..thank you for sharing your story .

Marie Johnson - September 18, 2022 at 02:14 AM

SA

I, too just watched the movie "Grandma's House" & it was very touching. It reminded me of my moma & how she was with my son & the other grandkids. She was also God-fearing loved God, family, church & her community. She instilled a lot in me, my siblings & grandchildren. I love & miss her & my daddy. Thank You for sharing your story about this wonderful, amazing woman of God. The way this world is going if you don't know God, you better get to know Him. He is still in control of everything & everybody. His power is so real, yall. Thank You again for sharing this beautiful story.

SHEMISE ADKINS - November 06, 2022 at 11:41 AM

AM

RIP Mrs Harris

A Fan I saw the movie - November 04, 2023 at 05:33 PM

VJ

I just watched Grandma's House. She sounded like an amazing God fearing Woman. I loved her as my own. My grandmother's are dearly missed as Mrs. Harris. R.I.P. God is so good, all the time. Loved the movie.

Vanita Johnson - December 30, 2023 at 09:30 PM