

Mrs. Marian Leola Mulberry

October 30, 1937 - January 24, 2019

Marian Leola Mulberry was born on October 30, 1937 to parents Lewis Douglas and Eva Scott. She was born in Madison, Florida and grew up in Daytona Beach. She married David A. Mulberry in 1955, shortly after she graduated from Campbell St. High School. She attended Bethune Cookman College. In 1957, Marian and her husband moved to Milwaukee, Wisconsin in search of a better life for their family. Marian was known to her friends and family as a loving caregiver and worked as a private duty nursing aid. She found her passion through cooking and used this as a means of expressing her love and devotion.

She was known as "Nana" to her beloved grandchildren, who she loved to spoil. She found great joy in making people laugh. Even as her dementia advanced, she still found a way to poke fun at you. Marian was a deeply spiritual woman. She would not start the day without her morning devotional, which featured the 91st Psalm: "Whoever dwells in the shelter of the most high will rest in the shadow of the Almighty, I will say of the Lord. He is my refuge and my fortress, My God, in whom I trust". Marian is survived by daughter, Countess Angela; sons, Sherman Mulberry and Anthony Mulberry; son-in-law, Eric McGee; grandchildren, Teighlor McGee, Charles David McGee, Garrison Mulberry, Keanan Mulberry, and Keith Mulberry; and sister, Gwendolyn Douglas of Daytona Beach, Florida.

“ MARIAN took care of my father Gene Posner for many years. She was a kind and gentle person. My father was so grateful for her presence as we all were. May she Rest In Peace.
